BRITISH COLUMBIA
LAW INSTITUTE PENSION DIVISION REVIEW PROJECT

Media Release

BCLI forms project committee to review pension division under part 6 of the Family Law Act

for immediate release

Vancouver, 21 February 2019—The British Columbia Law Institute has formed a new project committee to assist it in carrying out its Pension Division Review Project. The committee will review part 6 of the Family Law Act, the Division of Pensions Regulation, and allied legislation and will help BCLI to form recommendations to reform the law.

“It has been just over five years since part 6 came into force,” noted committee chair Colin Galinski. “I’m pleased to be working with this expert committee to examine how part 6 is working in practice and to consider ways to improve it.”

The members of the project committee are:

Colin Galinski—Chair
